AO 472 (Rev. 3/86) Order of Detention Pending Trial

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
		District of	Delaware
		UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
		v. O	RDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL
		Matima Miller Case	CR07-114-JJF
		Defendant
In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a detention hearing has been held. I conclude that the following facts require the detention of the defendant pending trial in this case.
Part I—Findings of Fact
	(1)	The defendant is charged with an offense described in 18 U.S.C. § 31420 or local offense that would have been a federal offense if a circumstance a crime of violence as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 3156(a)(4). an offense for which the maximum sentence is life imprisonment or an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years	giving rise to federal jurisdiction had existed that is death.
	 a felony that was committed after the defendant had been convicted of two or more prior federal offenses described in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f)(1)(A)-(C), or comparable state or local offenses. (2) The offense described in finding (1) was committed while the defendant was on release pending trial for a federal, state or local offense. (3) A period of not more than five years has elapsed since the ☐ date of conviction ☐ release of the defendant from imprisonment for the offense described in finding (1). (4) Findings Nos. (1), (2) and (3) establish a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of (an) other person(s) and the community. I further find that the defendant has not rebutted this presumption.
	Alternative Findings (A)
	 (1) There is probable cause to believe that the defendant has committed an offense for which a maximum term of imprisonment of ten years or more is prescribed in under 18 U.S.C. § 924(c). (2) The defendant has not rebutted the presumption established by finding 1 that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assur the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community.
	Alternative Findings (B)
	(1)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will not appear.
	(2)	There is a serious risk that the defendant will endanger the safety of anot	her person or the community.
Part II—Written Statement of Reasons for Detention
I find that the credible testimony and information submitted at the hearing establishes by derance of the evidence: Defendant is charged with possession of a firearm by a person prohibted in violation of 10 USC §§ 922(g) & 924(a). The basis for detention is as follows: 1. Defendant is not presently employed due to an on the job injury. He worked at Tire Rack for about a year before his arrest and previously worked provi 2. th had c cocai inclu	des a e sig contin ne ir de re se, d	on for about 4 months. He reports that he is the father to 8 children, all wany support for his children. Inificant offenses in defendant's past criminal history include (although de nuous arrests/convictions since that time)possession with intent to deliver to October 2002 and DUI October 2006. Defendant has 15 FTA between I expeated instances of driving without a license. In the present action, defendent was on state probation and in light of that there is no explanation	fendant's criminal history began in 1987 at age 12 and he has in 1995; escape after conviction December 1996; trafficking in 993 and Oc tober 2002, 21 citation for MV offenses which dant ran from police to avoid arrest. At the time of the present
